

Established in 1989, SCI-FI Science Camps is a non-profit organization based out of the College of Engineering at the University of Saskatchewan. Through hands-on science & technology programs we reach over 12,000 youth every year.

Science Unlimited & Girls Exploring Science 2009/10 Clubs Bursary Application Form

Thanks to the generous contributions of our sponsors, we are able to offer full and partial financial bursaries that provide youth with the opportunity to attend our camp programs. Please follow these steps to submit your bursary application:

2007 SCI-FI Funders:

Actua National Funders:

GE Canada

NSERC

Synapse - CIHR Youth Connection

Shell Canada

Honda Canada Foundation

- 1. Register your child online at www.scifi.usask.ca. Choose the club program (Science Unlimited or Girls Exploring Science), and select "Bursary" as the method of payment - or - complete a paper-based registration form and submit it along with this application.
- 2. Print, fill out, and sign SCI-FI's Consent Form from our website.
- 3. Have your child write a short letter to SCI-FI Science Camps c/o Brahm Neufeld that explains why they would like to attend science clubs this school year. The letter does not have to mention the bursary.
- 4. Mail or fax your completed bursary application, child's letter, and signed camp consent form to SCI-FI by Tuesday, October 14th at noon. Due to a limited amount of bursary funding, late applications cannot be processed.

A bursary will cover the cost of clubs; it will not cover options like YES Mag or Know Magazine.

After the bursary application deadline, applicants will be contacted by phone or lettermail about their bursary.
